

Calling All Covenant Youth Alums!

Save the Date: Sunday, December 29, 2024

Remember those amazing years in Covenant's youth whether you were here in the '70's or during the pandemic? It's time to relive the memories and create new ones!

What's Happening

9:30 AM – Breakfast served by current youth group members

(Yes, there's a rumor that Donny Whitehead may be flipping pancakes!)

11:00 AM – Worship led by Covenant youth, past and present

Possible Surprise!

Rumor has it that a founding director Ed Davis will be present for this exciting celebration!

Why You Can't Miss This

Reconnect with old friends and make new ones

See how Covenant has thrived post-pandemic

Meet our energetic new pastor, Joel Tom Buchanan

Witness the growing next generation of Covenant youth

Help us celebrate the lasting impact Covenant has had on your life

Whether you live in Athens or out of town

Local alums: Bring your families and welcome our out-of-town friends.

Out-of-towners: Extend your holiday stay in Athens for this special event.

Join us in celebrating the positive impact Covenant has had on your life's journey and see what it continues to do for youth in Athens year after year!

RSVP – Please respond to this email or contact one of us.
