

THE COVENANTER

February 18, 2018

Member NE GEORGIA Presbytery,
Synod of the South Atlantic, General
Assembly of the Presbyterian Church
(USA)

Covenant welcomes Nibs Stroupe, as our guest speaker TODAY- February 18 at the 8:30am & 10:45am worship services. Nibs is the author of the book, Deep Waters Sermons for a New Vision a sermon collection— but also a manifesto. Its sermons sound forth a call for Christian preaching that is evangelical and emancipatory: un-ashamed of the good news about Christ's death and resurrection and resolute in resistance to white supremacy, male domination, and redemptive violence. For thirty-four years, Stroupe pastored at Oakhurst Presbyterian Church, a multiracial congregation in metropolitan Atlanta. The sermons of this collection present the mature fruit of that ministry, and they offer a gift and example to the next generation of preachers and workers summoned as witnesses of Jesus Christ to the American context. A book signing will follow the 10:45am worship service in the fellowship hall. Books are $15 each (cash or check only). (pg 5 for more info.)

Bowden Church Vocations Fund—a special offering for Covenant Presbyterian Church

We continue to be grateful to God for all the gifts of the Spirit seen in Covenant's ministry of the past 52 years. We have had 8 candidates for ministry who attended Columbia Seminary in Atlanta: Andy Casto-Waters, Rob Lohmeyer, Jennifer and David Horton, Insook Lee, Boin Cho, David Fuentes, and Lauren Van Wicklen Peters and one who attended Union in Richmond, Robin Mann Murzynski. We have also supported the efforts of our members as Volunteers in Mission, on summer Mission Teams, as student interns on our church staff, and in other studies and certifications at Montreat College and Columbia Seminary. We also encouraged Susan Verbrugge and Catherine Willis Oliver as they too became PCUSA Ministers of Word & Sacrament. Named in honor of Jim & Jere Bowden's 35 year ministry here at Covenant, the BOWDEN CHURCH VOCATIONS FUND was established in 1996 by our Session to support our members who have been called to full-time employment in some form of Christian ministry. This year we celebrate with Colleen Cook who is finishing her third of 4 years at Columbia Seminary this spring. Colleen is a longtime member, who was active in the choir and coordinator of our CovConn program. Please keep her in your prayers. The costs are great. A special offering for the Bowden Fund will be received this month. Make checks out to Covenant and mark them BCVF or Bowden Fund. PLEASE RESPOND GENEROUSLY, as we support our members in this journey of faith together!

Nibs Stroupe is a native of Helena, Arkansas and retired as senior pastor at Oakhurst Presbyterian Church in 2017, where he had been pastor since 1983. Oakhurst Presbyterian is a nationally recognized leader in multi-cultural ministries, having been featured in Time Magazine, NBC News, NPR, CNN News, CBS Radio, Christian Science Monitor, and Presbyterians Today. In 2003, the church was named as one of 300 Excellent Protestant congregations in the United States by a Lilly-based study.

He graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Rhodes College with a B.A. in philosophy, and he graduated first in his class from Columbia Seminary in 1975. He was a conscientious objector in the Vietnam War era and did his alternate service by directing a halfway house for men getting out of prison in Nashville from 1970-72.

He is married to the Rev. Caroline Leach, and they have two children and two grandchildren. He and Caroline were the first clergy couple to serve in a local church as co-pastors in the former PCUS, and they were pastors at Oakhurst Presbyterian until her retirement in 2012. He is the author of four books "While We Run This Race," "O Lord, Hold Our Hands," "Where Once We Feared Enemies," and a book of sermons just published "Deeper Waters: Sermons for a New vision," by Wipf&Stock Press.

He has made contributions to many books and magazines, including The Atlantic. He is a monthly columnist for Hospitality Magazine and has written frequently for Journal for Preachers and the Feasting on the Word Series. He has led workshops on racism for more than 50 groups, and he currently serves on the national Presbyterian Intercultural Network Board. He was a member of the board of the Oakhurst Community Health Center for 6 years and served as its chair for 2 years. In 2007 he was inducted into the MLK Board of Preachers at Morehouse College, and in 2008 he and Caroline were named Peacemakers of the Year by the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta. He served as Moderator of the Presbytery of Greater Atlanta and was a commissioner to the Presbyterian General Assembly in 1994. He delivered the Kulenkamp Lectures at Eden Seminary in 1997 and the Alumni Lectures at Drew School of Theology in 2006, and he will deliver a lecture at the Conference on Karl Barth and Preaching at Princeton Seminary in June, 2018. He has been adjunct faculty at both Columbia Seminary and Candler School of Theology.

Highlights of the called Session meeting on Tues.Feb.4 include: 1) approval of hiring Grahl Construction to renovate our bathrooms for $120,055; 2) approval of an additional 10% for potential, unexpected costs, if needed, for a possible total of $132,000; and 3) approval of Hank Tweedell as the one person representing Covenant with the contractor during construction. Renovations should begin by early March. Ongoing copies of the minutes of Session meetings, as well as Ministry Team minutes, can be found on the table in the narthex. All Session meetings are open to anyone's attendance.

I am truly thankful to all those in the Covenant congregation who contributed to the Ben Bruner Fund. The purpose of the fund was to help Ben go with his Cedar Shoals ROTC unit to Normandy France to celebrate the 70th anniversary of D-Day. That trip was a wonderful gift to Ben who would not have been able to go without this help from you. All of the funds were not used by Ben for that trip. Now Ben is a freshman cadet at the University of North Georgia, Dahlonega. He was a good student at Cedar Shoals and earned grants and scholarships for his freshmen semester at UNG. Some fees were not covered by these grants/scholarships. The remaining dollars in the Ben Bruner Fund have been used to pay some of the remaining fees. Thank you all so much for your contributions to help this deserving young man.

Ben has now finished his first semester at UNG-Dahlonega and I am happy to report that he made all A's during this first semester!!!

If you would like to send him a note of encouragement, his mailing address is Ben Bruner, Box 6769, UNG Post Office, 82 College Circle, Dahlonega, GA 30596

In February we turn to Matthew 3:1-6;13-17. John the Baptist, Jesus' baptism, our own baptism, and Lent! Water, essential to life, is an essential part of the experience, and also a powerful metaphor. As you and your children interact with water in your day-to-day lives, I encourage you to think of ways water is a deep part of the faith experience, our connection with God, the Earth, and one another.

Memory Verse: Matthew 3:17 - Then a voice said from heaven, "This is my own dear Son, with whom I am pleased."

GREEK TO ME: We are getting along learning the Greek alphabet. Do you remember:

What is the third letter of the Greek alphabet?

Why was ε scared of ζ?

These letters look familiar but don't sound like they look. Can you identify them and tell your parents the correct pronunciation? P, η, ν Repeat from last week: Can you translate this word? Ἰησοῦς

Raising our children in the faith is a gift we give and receive.

Come and see! You are invited to bring a bag lunch to the Fellowship Hall on Sunday, March 4, at 12:30pm, and hear a wonderful presentation from Eric Zimdars about his 2 years in the Peace Corps in Alto Parana, Paraguay, 2014-16. Remember that Covenant helped finance "Water Security for Community Production," digging a deeper well to irrigate the 100,000 yerba mate saplings produced annually by 13 small-scale, local farmers. Eric will be moving out west later this year, to pursue employment and a graduate degree – so this is our chance to learn more from him about his experience. Hope you can attend!
