PRESBYTERIAN DISASTER ASSISTANCE

OUT OF CHAOS, HOPE

WITNESS SUNDAY is October 21—Come and see; learn and grow!

Our Witness Team continues to support Christ's mission to the world, offering a global focus on ways we can be helpful. This year, we will welcome Edwin Gonzalez-Castillo, the Presbyterian Disaster Assistance consultant for continuing aid to Puerto Rico after the 2018 Hurricane Maria. He will preach at both worship services, host a Q&A presentation during the Church School hour for youth & adults, and be present for individual conversation during lunch in Fellowship Hall. We hope to create a Mission Trip to Puerto Rico for the summer of 2020. Share your ideas & talents! Terry Centner & Sandy Whitney, chairs. A catered luncheon by The Blind Pig will be served at 12:15pm - monetary donations are appreciated.

OCTOBER 28—We will welcome, Gerhard Frey-Reininghaus, who worked for the Evangelical Church of Czech Brethren for 26 years and recently retired April of this year. He will speak at 8:30am & 10:45am worship and Church School at 9:30am in the Fellowship Hall.

All Saints Sunday! Sunday, November 4th at 8:30am &

10:45am This commemoration of the saints goes to the heart of our faith; death has not won (1 Corinthians 15:55-57); in all we do we are accompanied by fellow Christians, living and dead (Hebrews 12:1); and in the end, we will join others in praising God eternally (Revelation 7:9-10). We will refer to them during a moment of recognition & prayer during worship. Please check the list in the gathering room table for additions and or corrections.

Remember in Prayer: Beecher and family in the passing of her sister, Elizabeth, 10/10; Judy Capie's brother, David Glaspey doing well after quadruple bypass surgery; Brian Striggow recovering well from surgery to donate a kidney; Joan Prittie recovering well after surgery on a broken, fractured wrist; Barbara Burnett with a final diagnosis of a migraine not a stroke; those affected by the devastation and loss of life from Hurricane Michael—remember you can contribute directly to Pres Disaster Assistance at <https://pda.pcusa.org/page/give/>; Jean Gibson, at The Oaks; Pauline Marshall, at Highland Hills; Craig Topple's sister Genia in Atlanta; Marion Wilmot, at home.

Dear Friends,

As many of you may have heard by now, Beecher's sister Elizabeth died this past Wednesday after several days of being on a ventilator. While Liz had lived with significant health concerns for some years, no one in her family had anticipated the rapid failure of her lungs. Please keep Beecher and her mother Jacqueline (now 104!) in your prayers as they make funeral arrangements and begin the difficult work of shutting down an apartment and discerning the possibility of Jacqueline moving from Birmingham to Athens. While our hearts are heavy, let us continue to place our hope in Christ and the promise of resurrection. Grace and peace, Mark

Dear Covenant Friends,

Thank you so much for all the cards & calls & prayers you've sent our way, both for my mother's 104th birthday and now the unexpected death of my sister. It's a very hard time, we both are very tired, but as Mother told me within that first hour, we just have to forge ahead. A dozen or more very unusual timings that I've noticed these last two weeks make God's presence so tangible. Just the right person arriving with exactly what we need—and you all too, across the miles. It's been a little odd yet so delightful to sense how well we can trust that things will work out. So keep praying for us.

She's mobile and very aware, just needing assisted living now at 104.

Thank you for your generosity and patience. Blessings and peace to you all, Beecher

Elizabeth's memorial service will be at South Highland Church, Birmingham, AL, Tuesday, October 16th at 2pm Central. Look for her obituary by Sunday in the Birmingham News online at www.AL.com.

Meet Our Neighbor Katia—Covenant has recently become a member congregation of the Interfaith Sanctuary Coalition (ISC), a group of Athens area faith communities committed to offering friendship, hope, and compassionate support to our undocumented neighbors. Through ISC we have met Katia, a 19 year-old mother of two who has lived in Athens for 17 years. Her husband was deported to Mexico a few months ago, leaving Katia with her mother and sister to try and make ends meet. Currently Katia is working some shifts at a local flea market. In the fall she will be returning to school, seeking to complete her high school education through an on-site, on-line program at the ACC School District office. Here are some ways we can help Katia immediately and in the months to come: *By providing Lyft gift cards or a bus pass so that she can get to work and run errands

*By offering rides to school several times a week in the fall (once we know her schedule we will set up a Sign-Up genius for volunteer drivers) *By supplying her with plastic storage bins and age-appropriate books for her children (she has a one year-old boy and a three year-old girl) *By sharing information about local, private cosmetology schools and helping fund her tuition

Thank you for prayerfully considering entering into this relationship with Katia and her family. In these days when many of us are rightly focused on legislative efforts to enable parents and children to stay together along our borders, this is a chance to extend gospel love to a vulnerable family that is already here.

As one of my teachers likes to say, "Justice is good, but supper is essential!"

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28—We will welcome, Gerhard Frey-Reininghaus, who worked for the Evangelical Church of Czech Brethren for 26 years and recently retired April of this year.

Gerhard arrived in the Czech Republic for a two-year postgraduate study program with his first wife Adelheid in 1991 from a church in Köngen, Württemberg state. However, he did not return to Germany when the two years passed. It was a time when the Protestant Theological Faculty was facing a rapid increase in the number of its students, and Gerhard took on the difficult task of helping the Faculty find a new building. He was immensely hardworking in his fundraising activities, always open to suggestions, kind and enthusiastic – and always somehow managing to spread this atmosphere and attitude among all his collaborators. Without his help, the Protestant Theological Faculty would never have been able to develop the way it did in the new conditions. With his wife, Gerhard established the international department at the Faculty, which remains very active up until today. His work at the faculty was followed by an invitation of the Synodal Senior back in the day, Pavel Smetana, to work at the Ecumenical Department of the Central Church Office. Gerhard's mission, right from the beginning, was to work on healing the wounds inflicted by the Second World War upon both nations. A Czech-German working group was thus established, Gerhard being the secretary for the Czech part. The starting point of this cooperation was a statement made by the ECCB's Synod in 1995 on the topic of the expulsion of the Sudetenland Germans. As a result from the working group the book The Dividing Wall Has Fallen (1996) was published, which had the aim of seeking reconciliation and mutual understanding. Through his work, Gerhard demonstrated and reminded everybody that reconciliation is the true focal point of the Gospel. It was also as a result of Gerhard's effort that an agreement was signed between the ECCB and the EKD in 2003. Cooperation in the field of combatting the sexual abuse of women and children in the Czech-German bordering areas followed this agreement.

However, Gerhard Frey-Reininghaus' work did not only focus on Germany. He also initiated the cooperation of the American Working Group in the Czech Republic and the Czech Mission Network in the USA. He established and developed contacts with a number of churches across Europe and also supported the ECCB's friendship with the Presbyterian Church of South Korea. It was Gerhard's initiative, that this informational bulletin has been issued for the many international partners of the Protestant Theological Faculty, of the ECCB and its Diaconia.

Gerhard also proved a very skilled organizer and coordinator, for example when coordinating the aid during the floods of 1997 and 2002, organizing the Meeting of Christians in Prague in 2005 or during the celebrations of the 600th anniversary of the death of Jan Hus in July 2015. Gerhard supported these events with his detached view, his good estimates and communication, and he managed the preparatory teams with professional routine.

At the good-bye party for Gerhard, organized by the Synodal Council on 1 April 2017 and attended by approximately 150 Czech and international ecumenical partners, gratitude for his understanding, openness and friendliness were most often expressed. Gerhard's work has enriched our lives and serves as inspiration for many. We are glad that Gerhard's friendship lasts and we can still meet him in various roles dealing with Czech and international ecumenical activities.

Parents Corner: Fellow Parents, learning Bible stories is such an important part of our self-understanding: we become connected with a deeper story; we come to recognize ourselves as part of God's story. However, if you're like me, you may cringe at aspects of some of the stories found in the Hebrew Scriptures (aka Old Testament); and, even some from the New Testament. Our challenge is often to hold those troubling aspects of the Story together with those comforting aspects, and help our children to do that as well, as they encounter a people of faith trying to make sense of who they are, who God is, and who they are in relationship with God and others in the world. All this to say, in October we continue our journey with the Israelites found in Exodus this month, specifically chapters 3-4. We find what might be considered disturbing aspects, but also aspects essential to our understanding as a "people of the Book". Please take the time to read through these chapters with your children over the course of this month. Maybe it becomes part of a family "bedtime routine" to read it together, or separately before going to bed. Take time to allow your children to ask questions, and ask your own questions! It's okay to say, "that would be a good question to ask at WoRM, or "let's go ask Pastor" about that. There's some of the coolests stuff here in these chapters, including the "Burning Bush," and Moses turning a stick into a snake! The Exodus is a story of conflict and oppression, as well as liberation and redemption. It has inspired peoples for generations. Now it's our children's turn to get caught up in the story of God found in these pages! Remember, be sure to help prepare your children for WoRM by telling them who their teacher is and where their lesson will be. The renovation of Loaves and Fishes room seems to be near completion. As soon as word comes we can move back in there, we'll do so.
