Update on Stewardship Pledges for 2020-2021

We are in the middle of our annual stewardship / pledge program but with “sheltering in place” this year is anything but normal. In past years, we would have already celebrated together at our Stewardship Luncheon after all the pledges had been received and next year’s budget finalized. So far, just over 50% of the pledge cards have been returned. This is understandable because in past years you probably just dropped off your pledge card when you came to church. But this year, we need to have everyone mail, or email, your pledge to the church office.

Your pledge commitment is needed to help us plan for our summer activities and community missions. Your support in the past has helped us make a difference in our community and around the world. I would like to encourage you to make a pledge to the mission and ministry of our church. You will be a part of transforming lives! If you have not returned your pledge card, please mail it to the church soon. You can also call the church office to request a new pledge card if you misplaced the original. Thank you for your continued support!

High School and Middle School Youth Groups

A word from the Montreat Youth Conference Leadership Team:

As we manage in a time of uncertainty for church programs, we thought it might be a good idea to experience a bit of our summer conference community now, so we asked our 2020 conference leadership if they could help us deliver a little Montreat Now. We've put together some online content from two of our largest summertime events, Montreat Youth Conference and the Worship and Music Conference.

This week's speakers are Rev. Cecilia Armstrong and Rev. Tony McNeill. To hear them (and previous speakers) go to: You Tube Montreat Now.

Confirmation Class – Mark your calendars for our Sunday, April 26 class via ZOOM at 2:00 p.m. and our ZOOM meeting with the session, Tuesday, April 28, 6:30 p.m.

If there's a mantra for living through this pandemic, it's "Wash your hands!" And yet, for our homeless neighbors and others without easy access to soap and water this necessary advice can sound like a cruel joke, emphasizing how dangerously marginalized so many of our sisters and brothers really are. Thanks to Hank Tweedell and his able assistant Carrie, those who pass this way now have access to an outdoor handwashing station at Covenant. After Bert and Marie Ballard-Myer initially proposed the idea, and then after a Sojourners magazine article reminded me of their great idea, I reached out to Hank who quickly figured out a way to rig up a timed shut-off sink and hand-soap dispenser on the fence that encloses our garbage cans. Now I've seen both homeless friends, as well as one or two postal workers who like to eat lunch at our picnic tables make use of this great resource that is keeping all of us safer and healthier. Thanks to Hank and Carrie, Bert and Marie; and thanks! be to God!

As you probably already know, Learning Ally (formerly Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic) has long been a cause dear to my heart. As a former teacher, I have long been aware that many students struggle with reading. In fact, research has shown that 1 in 5 students is somewhere on the dyslexia spectrum. During this time, when the coronavirus has disrupted so many lives, Learning Ally has generously eliminated their usual registration fees, so thousands of dyslexic students have signed up to use their quality audio textbooks and juvenile fiction books for free. What a boon this is for students who can no longer go to school! For this reason, this is an important time for you to give your financial support to Learning Ally.

Many of you know that I enjoy knitting. For this fundraising season, I have donated a shawl that I knitted. You can see pictures of the shawl on my fundraising page. Here is the link: <https://supportus.learningally.org/Caren2020> It is being raffled off; you will receive 1 virtual raffle ticket for each $10 donation.. Many thanks for taking a look, Caren Snook

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry

Members, and friends of Covenant have been giving generously of their time and talents to the Emergency Food Pantry. As you can imagine, the need is great. For the month of March 331 families were served by the wonderful volunteers of Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry.

we will be following the process one of our volunteers dubbed the "Chick Fi La" approach:

Food will be bagged ahead of time and placed on tables in the fellowship hall. More square footage there allows for ease of social distancing.

Meat and cheese will be added at the time of distribution. (if available)

Neighbors in need of food will be instructed by our "parking lot attendant" to drive up to the side door of the fellowship hall.

Food bags will then be handed off to the neighbor.

We have masks, gloves and sanitizer for volunteers

Currently, Covenant's Food Pantry is still available on Tuesdays, Thursdays 1pm – 4pm.

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

STAY SAFE—If there is any reason at all that you should NOT physically volunteer-consider the following:

Make a financial donation to the Food Pantry by sending a check to Covenant and write "food pantry" in the subject line.
(You could send it in at the same time you send in your pledge).

We can use grocery bags (paper or plastic), and small boxes to pack the food. If you call the church, someone could even come out to your car and get it.

If you are able to physically be present as a volunteer:

Click the link below for an easy sign up or call or email Betsy Pless 540-1719 bppless@gmail.com

You can just sign up for 1 day, or for multiple days. You can also share the 3-hour time slot with 2 friends!

Family Promise (IHN)

"Whatever you did for one of the least of these sisters and brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). As Covenant's host week of April 19-26 approaches, and recognizing the troubling times that we are in during the current COVID19 crisis, we must be ever mindful that the homeless are particularly vulnerable, and of the urgent need to keep both Family Promise guests and our Covenant volunteers safe. Family Promise Athens has been making efforts to accomplish this by housing guests at a static site at Athens Church of Christ on Mars Hill Road where guests are housed in three small cottages within a spacious indoor area where social distances may be maintained. You are encouraged to view a YouTube video tour of the site to see the set-up and learn more about efforts to maintain guest and volunteer safety. It may be found at <https://youtu.be/B1jIutMY8wU>. The three guest families only recently moved into the Church of Christ facility on April 5, so hosting of families in this setting is still a work in progress; although questions may remain about measures needed to maintain guest and volunteer safety in all of the traditional roles, these questions will continue to be answered during the time leading up to our host week. Certainly, we can make a difference not only through volunteer efforts but also through financial contributions. People interested in volunteering may sign up electronically using Signup Genius at <http://bit.ly/FPApril>. While Family Promise Athens is seeking volunteers as day, evening, and overnight hosts, Covenant is not obligated to fill all of the volunteer slots and we believe that one very meaningful contribution would be to prepare hot nutritious evening meals (with separate containers for each of the three guest families); drop-off is 'non-contact' and delivery can be arranged if needed. If you are not comfortable with volunteering, funds are urgently needed to fill in slots normally staffed by volunteers. Contributions to those efforts may be made at <https://www.fpgives.org/organizations/family-promise-of-athens>.

Again, we urge you to take a look at the excellent video referenced above and check out the sign-up genius form. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact either Steve Rathbun (rathbun@uga.edu or 814-418-0785) or Phil Hale (phale50@hotmail.com or 706-614-0812).
