Mike Swanson died peacefully this week in presence of his beloved wife, Paige Cummings, after a protracted struggle with an aggressive cancer. The two of them made plans for a celebration of his life once it is safe to gather in large groups. It was Mike's wish to have his family and friends honor his memory with gifts to the Athens Nurses Clinic, an extraordinary medical ministry to our neediest neighbors in Athens. Paige Cummings serves as its executive director, and over the years, Mike spent hundreds of hours supporting Paige in her efforts to address the medical needs of our vulnerable, medically fragile friends needing healing. When the Clinic's largest donor was unable to continue its financial support of this critical ministry due to the coronavirus, it distressed Mike greatly. He felt that the community safety net for our most vulnerable neighbors was torn, and from his hospital bed, he was brainstorming with Paige for other sources of funding. For those who would like to honor Mike's commitment to our vulnerable neighbors, donations may be made in his memory to the Athens Nurses Clinic, 240 North Avenue, Athens, GA 30601, or to Covenant Presbyterian Church (earmarked Athens Nurses Clinic), 1065 Gaines School Road, Athens, GA

While we shelter in place, Jesus will continue visiting us in the most unusual of places! On no particular schedule, a plastic figurine of Jesus, Flat Jesus, may show up on your doorstep or in your mailbox, and you are invited to create a scene anywhere you choose, include your family, pets, anything you'd like, and Flat Jesus, take a photo using your cellphone or some device, and send it to the church office Karen Wetherington will post it on the church's FaceBook page, and we'll have fun guessing where, and maybe who (if you disguise yourselves!) Flat Jesus may be visiting. Travels with Flat Jesus will be a wonderfully creative, quirky, fun way to stay connected during this season of quarantine. Once Flat Jesus visits you, you may "send him packing" to the home of another Covenant friend.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

FAMILY PROMISE (Formerly IHN)

The July 12-19 dates for Covenant's rotation for Family Promise have been added to the SignUpGenius Link. Athens Church of Christ (ACOC), a wonderful facility for the families, will continue serving as their temporary home. The families have been at ACOC since the beginning of the pandemic...the address is 3720 Mars Hill Road. The families are very comfortable at this site. Volunteering is so, so easy here, and you stay safely apart from everyone. We will have three families during our week.

Please click on the following link to find a good spot to help these families as they get back on their feet.

We do need volunteers to be on-site throughout our week, along with dinner meals. Dinner preparers just drop the food at a table inside the door...Susan Parish will let food volunteers know food issues/preferences/etc. We also need two over-nighters each night, and volunteers through the day.

In the last few weeks, two of our families have obtained permanent housing and have moved out. Each has been extremely grateful for a safe place to be, a true shelter in the storm. We now have two new families to keep us at 3. The two new families have moved in after quarantining per CDC recommendations and guidelines for the past two weeks at a local hotel before moving into the building.

Members of the Covenant congregation are invited to submit nominations for the session. Nominations must be received by July 15, and should be sent to any of the three members of the nominating committee: Helen Epps - 706-769-8938 or eppshelen@gmail.com

Bill Barstow - 706-546-7495 or 706-614-9078 or webarstow@gmail.com

Little Food Pantry – We continue to seek out new and faithful ways to respond to the needs of the food insecure and homeless friends in our community. UGA students built a Little Food Pantry on our church campus. It is located outside the doors of our fellowship hall. Little Food Pantries are scattered throughout Athens, and their purpose is to respond to the emergency food needs of hungry folks. We encourage you to help us keep our Little Food Pantry stocked with pop-top single serve canned goods that do not require cooking, peanut butter and jelly, packaged crackers, healthy snack items. Small individual personal hygiene items (ie: soap, deodorant, toothbrush and toothpaste, and shampoos) in a ziplock bag with a granola bar of some kind is also needed. Please remember everything must be sealed to prevent ant infestations...

The Covenant coffee closet still has lots of coffee, tea, and hot chocolate ! Although the regular office hours and services are suspended, the church is open on Tuesdays and Thursdays for the Food Pantry from 1 - 4 PM. Please call the church office at 706-548-2756 and place your order and when you would like to pick it up. A food pantry volunteer will hand your order as you drive through the parking lot. In this time of uncertainty, let's not forget the hard working farmers and their families who depend on the Equal Exchange folks to buy their coffee at a Fair Price !!! Any questions please contact Sandy Whitney at sandrawhitney08@gmail.com.

Dear Covenant Family,

I hope many of you tuned in to last Saturday's virtual Poor People's Campaign Rally. If you did, you joined over 2 million participants nationwide, according to the most recent count by Repairers of the Breach, one of the principle organizing groups for the rally. If you were not able to watch, I think it remains available for viewing at www.June2020.org. As a follow up, we are offering a link to the PPC's Policy Platform. This document is a summary of the "Legislative and Policy Priorities of the Poor People's Campaign: A National Call for Moral Revival." I commend your prayerful attention to the vision and hope it contains, especially as we enter election season. Grace and peace, Mark

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry

Members, and friends of Covenant have been giving generously of their time and talents to the Emergency Food Pantry. As you can imagine, the need is great.

Covenant's Emergency Food Pantry will be starting up again on Tuesday, June 16th after taking a week off to reassess our safety procedures. New procedures will be in place in order to keep our volunteers and neighbors safe. All current Food Pantry volunteers have received specific information about these new procedures. Please see below information if you are interested in volunteering with the Emergency Food Pantry.

Jesus said, "You give them something to eat."

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

STAY SAFE—If there is any reason at all that you should NOT physically volunteer—consider the following:

Make a financial donation to the Food Pantry by sending a check to Covenant and write "food pantry" in the subject line. (You could send it in at the same time you send in your pledge).

We can use grocery bags (paper or plastic), and small boxes to pack the food. If you call the church, someone could even come out to your car and get it.

If you are able to physically be present as a volunteer:

Click the link below for an easy sign up or call or email Betsy Pless 540-1719
